Mark Your Calendar to attend the first ACNM Virtual Career Fair

April 14, 2016 11:00 am – 4:00 pm EST

ACNM is holding its first Virtual Career Fair to help connect you with employers looking for candidates just like you! Whether you're looking for a job locally or thinking about relocating, the ACNM Virtual Career Fair is the perfect opportunity to take the next step. And it's free to participate!

The ACNM Virtual Career Fair is for all CNMs, CMs and Student Midwives and is an excellent resource for you to connect with the nation's top employers of CNMs and CMs. I encourage you to register today to create your Job Seeker Profile and also flag your resume as a Virtual Career Fair candidate on MidwifeJobs.com!

How the event works:

- Discover potential career opportunities, have your resume reviewed, conduct interviews via online chat, or even Skype, and follow-up with recruiters and employers that interest you
- Scout open positions more confidentially than at an onsite career fair
- Connect with top midwifery employers regarding their current and future hiring needs

Register today and take the next two months to perfect your professional profile, prepare for the event, and explore the available positions as new employers sign up.
